

I support media diversity

I am very upset that the Media in America is being concentrated in fewer and fewer hands. That the FCC, rather than fight this concentration, is actually instigating it is almost beyond belief. I feel that this is another example of government being owned and operated by the moneyed.

Sincerely,

James McLeod